GUIDELINES for WCA WORDS
What is WCA WORDS?
WCA WORDS is a literary journal open to any WCA member and will be published approximately once a month. Our goal is to provide a publishing platform for members who like to write.
How do I submit a piece for publication?
• Your submission must be your original work. It can be poetry, fiction, or non-fiction of 750 words or less.
• A submission should have a title and be typed in a format (not PDF) that can be edited for spelling, punctuation, and typo corrections. We will contact you if any substantive corrections need to be made.
• Submissions are sent to Iris Shur (irisjimshur@aol.com).
What are the Publication Policies?
• Proofreading and determination of appropriateness for publication will be done by a committee chaired by Iris Shur. Publication is also subject to review by the WCA Board.
• Per Jewish Federation of Greater Naples (JFGN) guidelines, "Items of controversial opinions and points of view about political issues will not be accepted for publication." Please keep your language and subject matter appropriate for the WCA audience.
• It will be clearly stated that the opinions and viewpoints of the author do not reflect the opinions of WCA or JFGN.
• Work that you have previously published elsewhere will be accepted, so long as you have permission to do so.
• Writers will need to agree to a release form before the work can be published. The form will be emailed to you after receipt of your submission.
• Although writers may submit multiple items, only one submission per member will be selected for publication in any given month.
